

cache supported

to promote young children's physical activity and movement skills.

Are you able to:

- Support 'Physical Development' as a 'Prime Area of Learning' in the EYFSC
- Implement the British Heart Foundation Activity Guidelines for Young Children?
- Deliver safe and effective physical activity sessions in your setting?

Your details

Surname
First name(s)
D.O.B.
Address
Postcode
Telephone
Email
Candidate or Pin No:
(office use only)

Course

We provide:

- Essential underpinning knowledge. The importance of Physical Development to children's overall development and links to the wider curriculum
- Information about available resources - equipment and programmes
- Skills needed to deliver practical sessions in any setting for all ages and stages
- On-going support through our website: activematters.org

Dates Thursday 30th October
/ Friday 31st October 2014

See website for up to date information

Time 9am-5.30pm

Duration 2 days

Venue Ealing, Hammersmith
& West London College
Gliddon Road, Barons Court
London W14 9BL

Fees No fees are required for course tuition. Cache fees of £27 will be required for registration and certification

Booking information

For more information or if you have any questions email:
info@activematters.org

Course application forms are available on our website:
activematters.org

Your employers details

Company name
First name(s)
Address
																Postcode
Employers telephone no
Employers email																			